How to use this guide

The 2006-07 Guide to United Way of San Diego County and its partner agencies has been designed to help you quickly find the services you need. It lists the agencies and their services that you support when you contribute to the United Way/CHAD Campaign.

The agencies are listed in alphabetical order. Each agency listing is followed by a brief description of the services they provide, as well as their address, phone number, website, e-mail addresses and code number.

What is United Way of San Diego County?

For more than 80 years, United Way of San Diego County has been a locally governed, non-profit community organization that focuses on bringing together people and resources to assist those in need and improve the quality of life for all San Diego area residents.

What is the United Way/CHAD Campaign?

The United Way/CHAD Campaign is one of San Diego County's most effective annual community fundraising efforts. Last year, more than 100,000 San Diego County residents—most donating at their place of work through payroll deduction—gave more than $23 million to their community through the campaign.

What is CHAD?

CHAD stands for Combined Health Agencies Drive. Combined Health Agencies is United Way's partner in the United Way/CHAD Campaign. Founded more than 30 years ago, Combined Health Agencies is an association of 26 local and national health organizations dedicated to providing community services, public and professional education and funding to support research.
